

Chris Broderick

Elite Process Serving and Investigations

Chris Broderick is an Illinois licensed detective with over 20 years of process serving experience. Chris is the owner of Elite Process Serving and investigations Inc. and oversees the day-to-day operations. Established in 2003, Elite Process Serving is a nationwide process serving company providing fast and efficient service of process throughout all 50 states. Elite Process Serving is a proud member of the National Association of Private Process Servers (NAPPS) and the Better Business Bureau (BBB). Elite is deeply committed to the people who make us what we are, both our employees and our clients. We pride ourselves in providing prompt, reliable, and professional service.