

Michael Moriarty
Windy City Process

I am a licensed private detective in Illinois and have been in the process serving industry for 24 years. In six years of business, Windy City has served 10's of thousands of court documents with state of the art software which allows our clients the best customer experience. Our goals at Windy City Process Serving is to provide the best customer service to our clients and to serve documents with diligence and courtesy toward recipients. These goals are proven effective by having few services quashed and maximum information provided while on site.