

Morgan I. Marcus

Carlson Dash, LLC

Morgan I. Marcus's focus is on commercial litigation, creditors' rights, post-judgment proceedings, and bankruptcy litigation.

Morgan regularly represents banks, lenders, creditors, business owners, and property owners on the trial and appellate levels in federal, state, and bankruptcy courts and in arbitration. Morgan is licensed in Wisconsin and Illinois state court, in the Court of Appeals for the 7th Circuit, and in federal courts and bankruptcy courts in Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Indiana. Morgan is a graduate of UIC School of Law, cum laude, and he received his bachelor's degree from Brandeis University with a focus on politics and English. Morgan is a section counsel member of the Commercial Banking, Collections, and Bankruptcy Section of the ISBA, and is a designate to the Board of Directors of the Jewish Counsel for Youth Services. Morgan lives in Highland Park with his wife and daughter.